Powers

- 5 The Charity has power to do anything which is calculated to further its Object(s) or is conducive or incidental to doing so In particular, the charity has power
- (1) to raise funds In doing so, the charity must comply with any relevant statutory regulations,
 - (2) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use,
 - (3) to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the Charity In exercising this power, the Charity must comply as appropriate with Sections 36 and 37 of the Charities Act 1993, as amended by the Charities Act 2006,
 - (4) to borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Charity as security for repayment of the money borrowed or as security for a grant or the discharge of an obligation The Charity must comply as appropriate with sections 38 and 39 of the Charities Act 1993, as amended by the Charities Act 2006, if it wishes to mortgage land,
 - (5) to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies, community organisations and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them,
 - (6) to establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the Objects,
 - (7) to acquire, merge with or enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other charity,
 - (8) to set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure but only in accordance with a written policy about reserves,
 - (9) to employ and remunerate
 - (a) a Chief Executive Officer (who may or may not also act as the Company Secretary) who shall attend all meetings of the Board, but who shall not act as a director trustee
 - (b) such other staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the Charity
 - (10) where the Chief Executive Officer is not acting as Company Secretary, then the Charity may appoint a Company Secretary who may or may not be a director trustee
 - (11) the Charity may employ or remunerate a director only to the extent it is permitted to do so by Article 7 and provided it complies with the conditions in that Article,
 - (12) to
 - (a) deposit or invest funds,
 - (b) employ a professional fund-manager, and
 - (c) arrange for the investments or other property of the Charity to be held in the name of a nominee,In the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000,
 - (13) to provide indemnity insurance for the directors in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in Section 73F of the Charities Act 1993
 - (14) to pay out of the funds of the Charity the costs of forming and registering the Charity both as a company and as a Charity

Application of income and property

- 6 (1) The income and property of the Charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects
- (2) (a) A director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Charity.
- (b) A director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 73F of the Charities Act 1993
- (c) A director may receive indemnity from the Charity in the circumstances specified in Article 57
- (d) A director may not receive any other benefit or payment unless it is authorised by Article 7
- (3) Subject to Article 7, none of the income or property of the Charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Charity. This does not prevent a Member who is not also a director receiving
- (a) a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity
- (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Charity.

Benefits and payments to charity directors and connected persons

7 (1) General provisions

No director or connected person may

- (a) buy any goods or services from the Charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public,
- (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Charity,
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Charity,
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the Charity, unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this Article, or authorised by the Court of the Charity Commission

In this Article a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has monetary value

Scope and powers permitting directors' or connected persons' benefits

- (1) (a) A director or connected person may receive benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity provided that a majority of directors do not benefit in this way and that such benefit is available generally to the beneficiaries of the Charity,
- (b) A director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the Charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, Section 73A to 73C of the Charities Act 1993
- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this Article a director or connected person may provide the Charity with goods that are not supplied in connection

- with services provided to the Charity by the director or connected person
- (d) A director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the Charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be 2% (or more) per annum below the base rate of a clearing bank to be selected by the directors
- (e) A director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the director or connected person to the Charity. The amount of rent and the terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The director concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of lease are under discussion
- (f) A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the Charity on the same terms as members of the public.

Payment for supply of goods only — controls

- (2) The Charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2) (c) of this Article if each of the following conditions is satisfied
 - (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the Charity and its directors (as the case may be) and the director or connected person supplying the goods ('the Supplier') under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity
 - (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question
 - (c) The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so
 - (d) The Supplier is absent from any part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Charity
 - (e) The Supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting
 - (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book
 - (g) A majority of the directors then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by Article 7.

4 In sub-clause (2) and (3) of this Article

- (a) 'charity' includes any company in which the Charity
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares, or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares, or

- (m) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company
- (b) 'connected person' includes any person within the definition in Article 61 'Interpretation'

Declaration of directors' interests

8 A charity director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the charity which has not previously been declared. A director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity's directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest)

Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalties

- 9 (1) If a conflict of interests arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any provisions in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply
- (a) the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person,
 - (b) the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not counted when considering whether a quorum is present at the meeting, and
 - (c) the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying
- (2) In this Article a conflict of interests arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a director or to a connected person

Members

- 10(1) The subscribers to the Memorandum are the first members of the Charity
- (2) Membership is open to other individuals or organisations who
 - (a) apply to the Charity in the form required by the directors and
 - (b) are approved by the directors
 - (3) (a) The directors may only refuse an application for membership if, acting reasonably and properly, they consider it to be in the best interests of the charity to refuse the application
 - (b) The directors must inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal within twenty-one days of the decision
 - (c) The directors must consider any written representations the applicant may make about the decision. The directors' decision following any written representations must be notified to the applicant in writing and shall be final
 - (4) Membership is not transferable
 - (5) The directors must keep a register of names and addresses of the members

Classes of membership

- 11(1) The directors may establish classes of membership with different rights and obligations and shall record the rights and obligations in the register of members
- (2) The directors may not directly or indirectly alter the rights or obligations attached to a class of membership
- (3) The rights attached to a class of membership may only be varied if
- (a) three-quarters of the members of that class consent in writing to the variation, or
 - (b) a special resolution is passed at a separate general meeting of the members of that class agreeing to the variation
- (4) The provisions in the articles about general meetings shall apply to any meeting relating to the variation of the rights of any class or members

Termination of membership

12 Membership is terminated if

- (1) the member dies or, if it is an organisation, it ceases to exist,
- (2) the member resigns by written notice to the charity unless, after the resignation, there would be less than two members,
- (3) any sum due from the member to the charity is not paid in full within six months of it falling due,
- (4) the member is removed from membership by a resolution of the directors that it is in the best interests of the charity that his or her or its membership is terminated. A resolution to remove a member from membership may only be passed if
 - (a) the member has been given at least twenty-one days' notice in writing of the meeting of the directors at which the resolution will be proposed and the reason why it is to be proposed,
 - (b) the member or, at the option of the member, the member's representative (who need not be a member of the charity) has been allowed to make representations to the meeting

Annual general meetings

- 13 (1) The Charity must hold its first annual general meeting within eighteen months after the date of its incorporation
- (2) An annual general meeting must be held in each subsequent year and not more than fifteen months may elapse between successive annual general meetings
- (3) The business of an annual general meeting shall comprise:
- a) the consideration of the Report and accounts presented by the directors
 - b) the election of the Chairman for the forthcoming year
 - c) the election of the vice-Chairman for the forthcoming year
 - d) the election of the Honorary Treasurer for the forthcoming year
 - e) the election of Trustees
 - f) the determination of the membership subscription, if any
 - g) the appointment and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditor or Auditors
 - h) any other business as may have been specified in the notices calling the meeting

General meetings

14 The directors may call a general meeting at any time

15 (1) The minimum periods of notice required to hold a general meeting of the Charity are

- (a) twenty-one clear days for an annual general meeting or a general meeting called for the passing a special resolution,
- (b) fourteen clear days for all other general meetings
- (2) A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority who together hold not less than 90 per cent of the total voting rights
- (3) The notice must specify the date time and place of the meeting and the general nature of business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under Section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and article 22
- (4) The notice must be given to all the members and to the directors and auditors

16 The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the Charity.

Proceedings at general meetings

17 (1) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present

- (2) A quorum is
 - (a) 5 members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote upon the business to be conducted at the meeting, or
 - (b) one tenth of the total membership at the time whichever is the greater
- (3) The authorised representative of a member organisation shall be counted in the quorum

18 (1) If

- (a) a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or
- (b) during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall be adjourned to such time and place as the directors shall determine
- (2) The directors must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting
- (3) If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the members present in person or by proxy at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting

- 19 (1) General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been elected to chair meetings of the directors
- (2) If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the start of the meeting a director nominated by the directors shall chair the meeting
- (3) If there is only one director present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting
- (4) If no director is present and willing to chair the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the it, the members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to chair the meeting
- 20 (1) The members present in person or by proxy at a meeting may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned
- (2) The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless these details are specified in the resolution
- (3) No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place
- (4) If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the members for more than seven days, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting
- 21 (1) Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded
- (a) by the person chairing the meeting, or
- (b) by at least two members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting, or
- (c) by a member or members present in person or by proxy representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all members having the right to vote at the meeting
- (2) (a) The declaration by the person chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded
- (b) the result of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the charity but the number or proportion of votes cast need not be recorded
- (3) (a) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting
- (b) If the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of the show of hands declared before the demand was made
- (4) (a) A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll
- (b) the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded
- (5) (a) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately

- (b) A poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs
- (c) The poll must be taken within thirty days after it has been demanded Where it is decided that a poll is to take place in these circumstances after a general meeting, all the members of the charity are entitled to vote
- (d) If the poll is not taken immediately at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken
- (e) If a poll is demanded the meeting may continue to deal with any other business that may be conducted at the meeting

Content of proxy notices

- 22 (1) Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a 'proxy notice') which —
- (a) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy,
 - (b) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed,
 - (c) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine, and
 - (d) is delivered to the charity in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate
- (2) The charity may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes
- (3) Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions
- (4) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as—
- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself

Delivery of proxy notices

- 22A(1) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the charity by or on behalf of that person
- (2) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the charity a notice in writing by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given
 - (3) A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates
 - (4) If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointors behalf

Written resolutions

- 23 (1) A resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that
- (a) a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible member,
 - (b) a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution a majority of not less than 75%) of members has signified its agreement to the resolution and
 - (c) it is contained in an authenticated document which has been received at the registered office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date
- (2) A resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members have signified their agreement
- (3) In the case of a member that is an organisation, its authorised representative may signify its agreement

Votes of members

- 24 Subject to article 11, every member, whether an individual or an organisation, shall have one vote

- 25 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is tendered and the decision of the person who is chairing the meeting shall be final

- 26 (1) Any organisation that is a member of the charity may nominate any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the charity
- (2) The organisation must give written notice to the charity of the name of its representative. The representative shall not be entitled to represent the organisation at any meeting unless the notice has been received by the charity. The representative may continue to represent the organisation until written notice to the contrary is received by the charity
- (3) Any notice given to the charity will be conclusive evidence that the representative is entitled to represent the organisation or that his or her authority has been revoked. The charity shall not be required to consider whether the representative has been properly appointed by the organisation

Directors

- 27 (1) A director must be a natural person aged 16 years or older
- (2) No one may be appointed a director if he or she would be disqualified from acting under the provisions of article 39
- 28 The minimum number of directors shall be 5 and the maximum shall be 9
- 29 The first directors shall be those persons notified to Companies House as the first directors of the charity .

30 A director may not appoint an alternate director or anyone to act on his or her behalf at meetings of the directors

Powers of directors

- 31 (1) The directors shall manage the business of the Charity and may exercise all the powers of the charity unless they are subject to any restrictions imposed by the Companies Acts, the Articles or any special resolution
- (2) No alteration of the articles or any special resolution shall have retrospective effect to invalidate any prior act of the directors
- (3) Any meeting of directors at which a quorum is present at the time the relevant decision is made may exercise all the powers exercisable by the directors

Retirement of directors

32 At the first annual general meeting all the directors must retire from office (and may offer themselves for re-election) unless by the date of the meeting the members have failed to elect sufficient directors to hold a quorate meeting of the directors. At each subsequent annual general meeting one-third of the directors or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one-third, must retire from office. If there is only one director he or she must retire

- 33 (1) The directors to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment. If any directors became or were appointed directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot
- (2) If a director is required to retire at an annual general meeting by a provision of the articles the retirement shall take effect upon the conclusion of the meeting
- (3) Directors shall be elected to serve for a term of three years and may stand for re-election for a second term of three years, after which second term they shall be barred from standing again. (Exceptionally, where a Director is the incumbent Chairman, Vice-Chairman or Honorary Treasurer and has insufficient tenure as a director to fulfil the role of the Office, then she/he may be re-elected for a further term as a director up to the maximum period remaining for that office.)
- (4) The Chairman shall be elected annually for a maximum term of service of six years and may not stand for election again, either as Trustee or Chairman.
- (5) The Vice-Chairman shall be elected annually for a maximum period of two years and may not stand for election again as Vice-Chairman until two years have elapsed. This does not preclude a Vice-Chairman from standing for election as Chairman once her/his period of office as Vice-Chairman has elapsed
- (6) The Honorary Treasurer shall be re-elected annually for maximum period of six years and may not stand again for election as Honorary Treasurer

Appointment of directors

- 34 The Charity may by ordinary resolution
- (1) appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, and

(2) determine the rotation in which any additional directors are to retire

- 35 No person other than a director retiring by rotation may be appointed a director at any general meeting unless
- (1) he or she is recommended for re-election by the directors or
 - (2) not less than fourteen nor more than thirty-five clear days before the date of the meeting, the Charity is given a notice that
 - (a) is signed by a member entitled to vote at the meeting,
 - (b) states the member's intention to propose the appointment of a person as a director
 - (c) contains the details that, if the person were to be appointed, the charity would have to file at Companies House, and
 - (d) is signed by the person who is to be proposed to show his or her willingness to be appointed
- 36 All members who are entitled to receive notice of a general meeting must be given not less than seven nor more than twenty-eight clear days' notice of any resolution to be put to the meeting to appoint a director who is to retire by rotation
- 37
- (1) The directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director
 - (2) A director appointed by a resolution of the other directors must retire at the next annual general meeting and must not be taken into account in determining the directors who are to retire by rotation
- 38 The appointment of a director, whether by the charity in general meeting or by the other directors, must not cause the number of directors to exceed any number fixed as the maximum number of directors

Disqualification and removal of directors

- 39 A director shall cease to hold office if he or she
- (1) ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act or is prohibited by law from being a director
 - (2) is disqualified from acting as a trustee by virtue of Section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision),
 - (3) ceases to be a member of the Charity,
 - (4) becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his or her own affairs,
 - (5) resigns as a director by notice to the Charity (but only if at least two directors will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect), or
 - (6) is absent without the permission of the directors from three meetings in any calendar year.

Remuneration of directors

- 40 The directors must not be paid any remuneration unless it is authorised by article 7.

Proceedings of directors

- 41 (1) The directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit, subject to the provisions of the articles
- (2) Any director may call a meeting of the directors
- (3) The Secretary must call a meeting of the directors if requested to do so by a director
